

his appearance in this cause for said Stephen E. Horine, so that all of the parties in interest are now before the Court.

5. That your petitioner still believes that an early sale of said real estate would be advantageous to all the parties, and to that end hereby consents to the passage of a decree for the sale of said real estate, with a reservation of all questions regarding the interests of the various parties in said real estate for the future determination by the Court.

Respectfully Submitted
